

SEMEX belongs to the elite of global cattle genetics and is increasingly positioning itself as a partner for growing dairy cattle farms. That's why we want to support our customers in finding qualified employees. Further education can be organized in cooperation with the company. Please indicate whether we have your application, stating your possible application region, to interested companies may pass on.

We are looking for different larger dairy farms in Germany for Herdsman and/or Herd Manager

Your tasks / Our requirements:

- Motivated personality
- Safe handling of dairy cows
- Experience in progressive herd management
- self-responsible action
- Working with and according to clear guidelines
- Open for permanent optimizations in the operation
- inseminate certificate or technician training
- Fresh Cow Management
- intensive training by the companies is ensured

Are you interested in this new challenge?

Please send your application stating your earliest possible appointment date by e-mail to: m.buschsieweke@semex-deutschland.de.
We handle your application confidentially.